ROSEMARY DAMICO

1951

Well now, it looks like we've gone through another year together. Now much longer can we take it. After all it's had enough of one of us to be in a place, but when it comes to two of us; that is the end. No kidding though, all joking aside & we had more fun and laughs with you than anybody else. Yeah, I know I'm just saying that because it is true. Be a good girl and write to Lloyd once in a while; the good kid I feel sorry for him having to leave a nice girl like you. Well, I guess it depends to the heart of the matter. Let me see the point to know when you get engaged because I want to be the first to congratulate you and he doesn't want to think I should be. After all (quite) "Just think Quiet" from a noted philosopher (S.M.A.) I bet you could guess who it is. (Ha Ha). That's good going all the way (more importantly) But I won't give you any hints as to that one. Well I guess it's time to leave off as I'll be all morning signing your year books. I'll see you at the prospect tonight. Yeah, I'm going. don't think. Gee Koeflich eggs. I don't want to hang the whole cover but it looks like I'm doing it anyway. Here is to a speedy typist, outstanding mathematical, accident scholar, and brilliant biologist. Day, you're pretty smart according to me, you ought to give me credit for that much at least. Remember Menckel, I mean; that a person and American history last year, "Went that was a pity. But what says you expect from a bunch of young people. But me I've seen a number and we know better. So long. Remember of luck and I'll see you around. Harleen

Foundation for the Future

The fulfillment of our hopes and dreams for the future of our Alma Mater depends upon the success of the freshmen class. Here Carmello Cannuli, Carolyn Dimmick, and Thomas Constable — look forward to their Salesian for 1954.

This year we have chosen for our theme, "De Sales The Builder," for it represents our school at the present time.

From the small school of our center section, we have grown to a new front wing with laboratories, library, three new classrooms, and a principal's office. In addition, we have a new gymnasium in process of building in the rear of the school.

We shall try to tell our story with our freshmen as the foundation, the sophomores as the walls in construction, the juniors as the fine furnishings, and the seniors as the completed structure of the new and better De Sales.

SAINT STEPHEN'S CHURCH

There are many persons and places to whom we wish to dedicate this, our 1951 Salesian: but especially to these do we pay tribute:

To Monsignor McPadden and Father Ball, pastors of St. Stephen's and St. Francis parishes and all past pastors do we wish to leave this, our last achievement as a class.

Then to Mother and Dad do we want a special "thank you" for giving us De Sales.

Throughout the years other builders have helped our growth—Father Nolan and the former principals of our school; the nuns who spend themselves for us; the alumni who paved the way for us; the brave lads who left De Sales for army life; the "gang" at Isenman's; Geneva, the city where we have lived so joyously in our "growing-up" years; and dear old De Sales whose sheltering walls have kept worldly cares away.

Especially do we thank Almighty God for casting our lot in so pleasant a place as De Sales.

We gratefully dedicate our 1951 Salesian to Pastors, Parents, and Builders of manhood and womanhood.

DEDICATION

MOST REVEREND JAMES E. KEARNEY, D.D.

He builded better than he knew;—The conscious stone to beauty grew.
Emerson, The Problem.

Beauty came to us from Bishop Kearney through the seven gifts of the Holy Ghost. These our Bishop has built into our lives by making all of us soldiers of Christ in Confirmation and has renewed by coming each September to say Mass in honor of the Holy Ghost to prepare us for the new year.

To De Sales, Bishop Kearney is a true friend. To the Class of '51 he represents the eternal Priesthood. Through his permission and influence, De Sales has attained our much needed goal — a new building and gymnasium.

To Bishop Kearney, our beloved shepherd in Christ, we, the Class of '51 wish to express our most sincere thanks and offer our most fervent prayers. We appreciate him as a builder of De Sales.

Monsignor McPadden's relationship with Geneva and De Sales has been long and lasting. To the people of Geneva he has given everything that is distinctive and splendid. When we are honor students, he rejoices; when we win in sports, he has pride in our achievement. We who have moved into the new wing of De Sales appreciate his thoughtful planning. Our rooms are bright, well equipped, comfortable.

If in Geneva there were to be an All-Genevan award for character building, the first citizen to receive it would be Right Reverend Monsignor William H. McPadden.

RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR WILLIAM H. MCPADDEN, V.F.

It is greater than tower

TREASURER

REVEREND EDWARD K. BALL

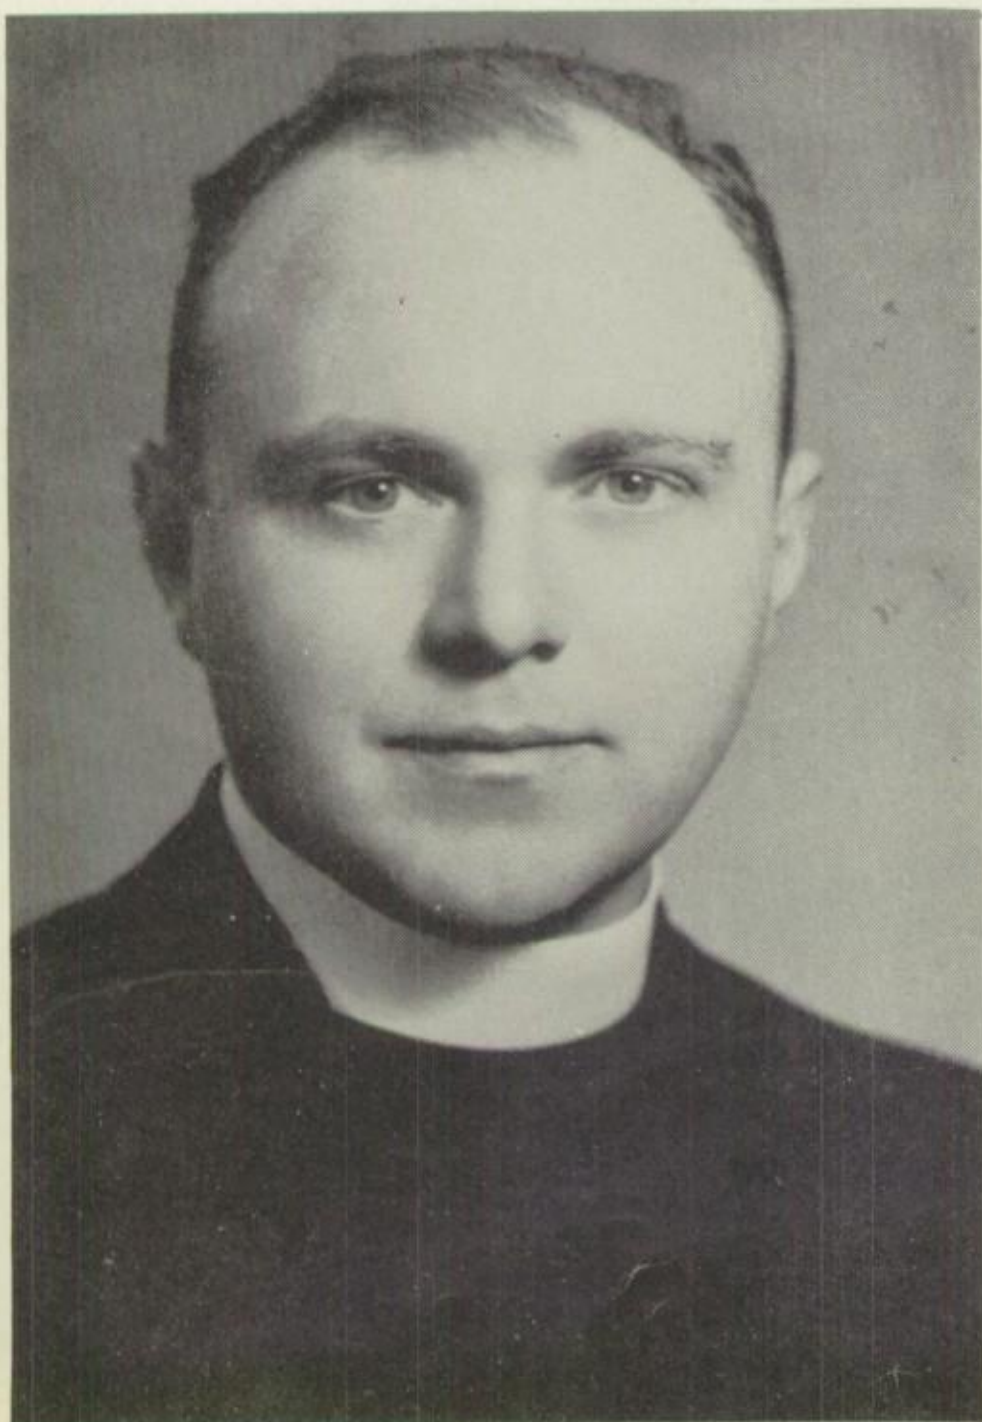

Father Ball began his association with De Sales in 1928 when he became its third principal. It is some years since he left this post to become the Pastor of St. Francis Parish; yet he has retained through the years his zealous belief in the importance of Catholic Education and his keen interest in our activities and progress. Today with the realization of our dream of a new and better De Sales, we look to him, our president, one of its staunchest builders, with sincere gratitude. We hope that the Class of 1951 and all our successors will reflect in our adult lives the Christian spirit of De Sales which Father Ball has so successfully helped to build.

REVEREND CHARLES J. MAHONEY
(Superintendent of Schools)

The progressive administration of the schools of the Diocese of Rochester depends largely on the Catholic Education officials. By wise rules for our advancement in culture, Father Mahoney and Father Boyle have helped De Sales, The Builder.

ADMINISTRATION

T R I B U T E

"Honor is the subject of my story," for the Class of 1951 give highest honor to Father Nolan, our principal. From freshman year, we have known his gracious guidance; as juniors we knew him as the gentlemanly scholar of Latin; as seniors we have met him daily as theologian, counsellor, administrator, and friend. We admire his patience, his painstaking labor. Under his able direction we have learned a well-balanced appreciation of what is just and true and beautiful. Whether he smiles genially from his office chair, or assumes at times the role of strict disciplinarian, or plans the roofing of our gymnasium on the opposite page, we know our good is his foremost thought. That is why honor is the subject of this story.

In the opening game of the season, the Saints jolted St. Mary's of Cortland 13-6, for their fifth straight win under Coach Dilts. The victory marked the first time since the war years that the Saints were able to defeat St. Mary's. The winning touchdown came in the third period when Jim Hamill raced 49 yards on a hidden ball play.

Waterloo edged De Sales 14-6 in the conference opener at Waterloo. John Lawlor scored the Saints lone tally in the second quarter on a pass from Hamill.

Last Will and Testament.

I

Phyllis Mildred Fisher

of the

City of Geneva

in the County of Ontario

and State of New York

being of sound mind and memory, do make,

publish and declare this my last

Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say: For the Class of 1951 of DeSales High School

First. To Father Nolan we leave Father Nolan as he is, - a man with the ability to penetrate and understand the problems of his students, to handle and solve these same problems firmly and graciously; a man whom with affection and with deep respect we call a "true friend".

To the faculty who through our four years at De Sales have taken a personal interest in each and every one of us we leave undying thanks and gratitude and hope that they realize that words alone are inadequate for expressing our true appreciation of their work.

Joyce Alvaro leaves her brother Buddy to Mary Lou Davia.
Henry Bolin leaves his joke book "Fun for the Feeble Minded" to Dismo Maher.

Butch Connell leaves his record as an honor student to Pete Lynch.

Eddie Gilbert leaves his driver's License to Pete Arthur.
Jim Gizzi bequeathes his "elevated shoes" to Teddy DePaulis.

Jim Hamill leaves six hankies to "Annie Mook" to dry her tears after his departure.

Fran Hargrove leaves her book "Silly Cheers" to Mary Ann Spratt.

Johnny Lawlor offers his road map to Waterloo to Jackie O'Byrne.

Jack O'Brien leaves the family car to his brother Bob who thinks it's about time he got it.

Jim Carroll leaves his unique auto decorations to Mike Calabrese.

Mary Esther Clark leaves her slow appreciation of jokes to Ann Diviney and wishes her better luck at them.

Mary Deane leaves her high, dramatic voice to Ann Bullock.

Mike DePillo leaves his position as Sister Frances Teresa's errand boy to Frank Consolie.

Phyllis Fisher leaves her perpetual ride home to Mary Saglimbeni.

Jackie Hart bequeathes to Jane O'Malley her appreciation for the Geneva Police Force.

Jean Ritter leaves her job of daily letter writing to Jean McNicholas.

Anita Snowney leaves her many financial affairs and a bottle of aspirin to Sis McCann. She'll need them.

Geraldine Sparrow leaves the "Senior Notes" to Mary Ann Valentino.

Anne Sweeney leaves her queenly poise and charming manners to Marlene Bushlack.

Mary Lou Arthur bequeathes her soprano voice to Helen Dunham.

John Augustine leaves his laryngitis lozenges to Bob Constable.

Angelo DiAntonio leaves his high marks in Spanish to Gene Evangelista.

Nancy McLaughlin leaves her formula for a "dreamy complexion" to Arlene Cosentino.

Dick Myles leaves his Fanny Farmer cook book to Joanne Moran.

Connie O'Malley leaves her talent for always being late to her sisters, Janet and Pat.

Trixie Onorato leaves his fine pitching arm to Donny Updike.

Tim Orr leaves to Bill Smith his long walk up DeLancey Drive.

Chuck Passalacqua leaves his "Where's Charley" reputation to Charley Certo.

Jim Ritter leaves his "Irish Tenor" to Bud Alvaro.

Alice Taney leaves her frequent telephone call to Dot Lahr.

I hereby appoint Francis Muriel Hargrove

executrix

of this, my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name the first day of June in the year Nineteen Hundred and fifty-one

Phyllis Mildred Fisher

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, Do Certify, that on the first day of June 1951

the testator above named, subscribed her name to this instrument in our presence and in the presence of each of us, and at the same time, in our presence and hearing, declared the same to be 1951's last Will and Testament.

ON THE DEATH OF A FRIEND

FEBRUARY 15, 1951

An hour ago they told me that Polly died last night, Polly, the quiet sweet little Sophomore who only a month ago was roaming the halls of De Sales. Since then I've thought a lot of things: Polly, in the joys and sorrows of death.

Being a senior, I am older than Polly but I knew her quite well just the same. I watched her at Library Club meetings. She was never hasty in passing judgments but when she decided something, nothing could change her mind.

I watched her as she went about in her own way—the little way always doing what she should—unobtrusively helping anyone who needed aid, never making a show of it. I watched Polly when people talked about her illness. She made as little of it as was humanly possible, never giving the impression that she suffered; although doctors say that she suffered unbelievably. I also watched her in Church. I saw her frequent the Sacraments especially Communion. She seemed to do all that she did for the Lord. I watched Polly at the Junior Prom last May. In fact I rode with her. It was her first formal! I watched the gleam in her eyes as she put on her flowers, as she danced with Robert Cleere. She had fun that night. I was not a close pal of Polly's but I feel that I knew her for I watched her and anyone who did knows what a darling she was.

Today, we at De Sales are experiencing something new, the loss of one of our own. Death has come close to our generation often, but this is different. Everyone feels a deep sorrow at our loss for it is a loss. But, our loss is Polly's gain. She's probably in heaven right now. If not, she soon will be for she was as close to being a saint as anyone could be.

Yes, her death has caused sorrow but it also has made me realize that it isn't so bad to die if we're prepared as Polly was. We'll all miss her smile, her thoughtfulness, her way—the little way—but we rejoice that one of our own will soon see God.

VALEDICTORY

A FAREWELL TO DE SALES

In every lifetime it is inevitable that a few farewells must be said. With each passing day the time for the Class of 1951 to bid farewell to our beloved school draws nearer and nearer. As the long awaited graduation day approaches with amazing rapidity we, the graduating class, are overcome with a curious mixture of joy and sadness. We experience joy that the goal—graduation—for which we have worked these four formative years at De Sales, has been achieved. We feel sadness at the thought of leaving the dear old school which was the scene of some of the happiest moments of our lives.

Before the Class of 1951 assumes its place among the alumni we wish to say farewell to those persons and things which made our high school career the memorable time that it was. With sincere regret we bid farewell to Father Nolan who has guided us through the most confused years of youth. To the Sisters of St. Joseph, who make up our faculty, we say good-bye with appreciation for having endured so patiently our many teenage foibles.

Farewell to the old school which harbors so many fond memories. To the new school we bid farewell with the fervent wish we could remain but a little longer. To each and every class we say farewell with an especial adieu and adios to the language classes. Farewell to the Tuesday evenings spent at meetings of Our Lady's Sodality.

Farewell to all those extra-curricular activities which are such an essential part of high school life. Farewell to the breakfasts at the "Diner" every first Friday. Farewell to the innumerable hours spent at Isenman's with the gang. Farewell to the well remembered bus rides to Cortland. Farewell to the formals, the parties, the games. Farewell to these and all the joys and trials that four full years at De Sales have brought us.

But with the saying of all these sad farewells there remain to us these two consolations: We leave the school prepared for any of the difficulties which may come to us in after years because of the religious foundation so strongly implanted within us during our years at De Sales; we can be consoled also with this thought that no matter what we may be or where we may go after graduation there can always be a reunion in prayer, for God is everywhere.
